Shaun Thomas Dingwerth has served as the Executive Director at the Richmond Art Museum, Richmond, Indiana since 2004. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. He is a noted curator, and art juror, creating and curating many important exhibits during his career.

He was awarded the Chancellor's Medallion, the highest honor presented by the Chancellor of Indiana University East and the Bicentennial Medallion in 2019 by Indiana University. Dingwerth is considered an authority on the Richmond Group artists. He wrote, The Richmond Art Group Artists, published by Indiana University Press, selling out of the first printing. He has also written articles in both the Plein Air Magazine and Fine Art Connoisseur. Dingwerth has given numerous lectures throughout the state about the development of the Art Association of Richmond, the Richmond Group, and their impact on American Art. In 2023, he was awarded the Indiana Governor's Art Award along with the Richmond Art Museum.
