This is a limited-edition print by American folk artist P. Buckley Moss (Patricia Buckley Moss, 1933 - 2024). It shows her classic style: elongated Amish? Mennonite-style figures in simple traditional clothing, set against rural stone farm buildings, autumn trees, and soft oval vignette, The scene features a family group-a mother in a long pink dress holding a baby, a bearded father in a broad-brimmed hat holding a small child, and a young girl in a matching pink dress holding a flower-filled basket standing in tall grass with wildflowers in the foreground. The buildings are warm brown stone with dark roofs, framed by bare and golden autumn trees under a soft pinkish sky.	Haggenjos Family Mark Haggenjos
